

On 13th October 2021, Mel Rees presented an amusing and entertaining talk. His talks are a light-hearted look at the travails of family life delivered in a chatty style. They cover children who won't leave home and, when they do, they still cost you money, parents who are likely to outlive you - plus a smattering of snobbery thrown in for good measure.

Mel has a repertoire of several amusing talks, some of which are:

1. My family & Other Setbacks
2. My Family and Other Meerkats
3. And Another Thing I Meant To Say
4. You'll Never Believe It But...
5. It Never Gets Any Easier
6. A Funny Thing Happened On The Way
7. Much Ado About Something
8. A Christmassy Tale... Or Two

About the Speaker

Mel has been giving talks for 20 years and is included in the WI, Townswomen's Guild and NAWC yearbooks. He also presents at events of the U3A, ARA, Probus, Rotary, Round Table, NHS Retirement Fellowships, Luncheon Clubs, and many other independent clubs and societies.

He is also an author (pseudonym 'Anthony Mann') and has written and self-published seven titles - six of which have been semi-autobiographical. Also in the series are three 'look at life' talking books in CD format. There is one novel: 'The Club – An Everyday Story of Trainspotters', written under the name Mel Rees.
